14. Workplace Harassment

Policy – Command believes in the prevention of harassment and promotes a harassment-free environment in which all people respect one another and work together to achieve common goals.

Command does not tolerate or condone any degree of harassment by anyone associated with the Command or from outside individuals. It is the responsibility of all Executive Council, Staff, and Membership to promote harassment free environments in the workplace.

Procedure – Command adopts the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat definition of Workplace Harassment as:

"Improper conduct by an individual, that is directed at and offensive to another individual in the workplace, including at any event or any location related to work, and that the individual knew or ought reasonably to have known would cause offence or harm. It comprises objectionable act(s), comment(s) or display(s) that demean, belittle, or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, and any act of intimidation or threat. It also includes harassment within the meaning of the Canadian Human Rights Act (i.e., based on race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, disability and pardoned conviction)."

Harassment can include such things as verbal or physical abuse, threats, derogatory remarks, jokes, innuendo, taunts, inappropriate telephone calls and voice messages, email, or comments on social media on any of the prohibited grounds.

The behaviour need not be intentional in order to be considered harassment, but may be offensive and/or intimidating. Such action may also engender fear or mistrust, and thereby compromise an individual's dignity or sense of self-worth. Any act of harassment committed by or against any employee, volunteer, or any other individual is unacceptable conduct and will not be tolerated.

Command is committed to investigating reported incidents of harassment in a prompt, objective, and sensitive manner taking necessary corrective action and providing appropriate support for victims. No individual shall be penalized in any way for making a complaint or giving evidence in a harassment investigation. The test to determine whether harassment has occurred is two-fold:

- Whether a person knew or ought to have known that the behaviour would be considered unwelcome or offensive by the recipient
- The recipient found the behaviour offensive

If an individual(s) believes they are being harassed, they should:

1. Immediately make the individual(s) aware that the behaviour is unwelcome and ask him/her to stop.
2. Report the incident(s) in writing to the Command Personnel Committee Chairman. In the event of an incident(s) involving the Personnel Committee Chairman, a written report is to be made to the Command President.
3. The recipient should keep a record of the incidents in question, which may include:
 - Name(s) of the individual(s) in question
 - The date, place, and time the incident(s) occurred
 - Name(s) of any witnesses
 - The event(s) that led up to the incident(s) in question
 - Any particular reason why the event(s) occurred
 - The actual incident that led to a complaint

Command will investigate and deal with all concerns, complaints, or incidents of workplace harassment in a fair and timely manner while respecting individuals' privacy as much as possible. Command will use mediation and/or disciplinary action dealing with incidents arising between employees and will adhere to the General Bylaws of the Royal Canadian Legion in any instances involving the membership.

This policy is not intended to limit or constrain the reasonable exercise of the employer functions in the workplace.

Nothing in this policy prevents or discourages an employee from filing an application with the Human Rights Tribunal on a matter related to Nova Scotia's Human Rights Code within one year of the last alleged incident. A worker also retains the right to exercise any other legal venues that may be available.

15. Human Rights Act

Nova Scotia/Nunavut Command of The Royal Canadian Legion and all entities under its' jurisdiction upholds and operates in full compliance with the Human Rights Acts of Nova Scotia and Nunavut. SECTION IX – COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Appeals Committee – Terms of Reference

This committee consists of the following:

Immediate Past President – Chairman
2nd Vice President – Member
And the most recent Past President

This committee makes a decision and informs both parties to the complaint, and the Secretary of the Branch/Command involved.

All appeals must be conducted in accordance with Article III, Para 314 of the General By-Laws.

Benevolent Fund Committee – Terms of Reference

The committee will consist of the most Immediate Past President as Chairperson and the Command Executive Director. The Command Service Officers will provide administrative support if required

Definition: The Command Benevolent Fund was created by a generous donation from the Nova Scotia Command Dart League and the Halifax Central Poppy Fund in July 2000 and has been registered as a Charitable Foundation under the Canada Revenue Agency.

A committee has been created/is designed to specifically co-ordinate/manage those funds identified and generated from within Command Branch Poppy Trust Funds and donations at large to further support Veterans and their dependents as defined in the Royal Canadian Legion General Bylaws, who are in need. The funds are also used to support our Veteran Peer and transition programs.

The funds may only be used for emergency assistance, which is defined as shelter, food, fuel, clothing, prescription medicine and necessary transportation. As well as support required for our Veteran peer and transition programs.

Assistance cannot be continued over an extended period but may be offered more than once to an individual. The signing Officers of the Command Benevolent Fund shall be the signing Officers of Command. The committee will meet as required to review all applications.

Application Requirements

A Veterans Affairs Canada Application 1278e or NS/NU Command Benevolent Fund application is mandatory and must be fully completed by the individual requesting assistance. Applicants must undergo a financial means test and, if required provide proof of debt and justification for any monthly expenses which are unusual or higher than average. As well, any additional information considered necessary to process the application must be provided (i.e., specialized medical reports, if applicable; supplier estimates, substantiation of income (Notice of Assessment) other sources of funding, etc. If possible, a completed VAC Counsellor's report (DVA514) that contains an overview of the client's situation, the type and amount of the requested assistance, the applicant's inability to pay, and the fact there is no other assistance available should be provided. Upon completion, the application is to be submitted to NS/NU Command Executive Director.

Once the application has been received and reviewed by NS/NU Command, the Branch Service Officer serving in the jurisdiction of the applicant may be contacted for his/her remarks and recommendations. Once the application has been received and reviewed by the NS/NU Command Executive Director, it will then be reviewed and decided upon by the Command Benevolent Fund Committee.

Adjudication & Process

Every application is considered on the merits of the applicant's circumstances and demonstrated need. The problem giving rise to the client's need must be beyond the ability of the applicant's own resources, and it must be of a sufficiently serious nature to constitute a definite threat to the economic stability of the family. A grant can only be made if the assistance, on its own or in conjunction with grants from other sources, will provide a complete and immediate solution to the situation or contribute to a plan offering reasonable assurance of a long- term solution. The recommended solution must be the most basic and cost-effective remedy available given the applicant's need and circumstances.

Payment of Grants

As a rule, approved Benevolent Fund grants are made by cheque, jointly payable to both the applicant and service provider or directly to the service provider by Command credit card.

Bursary Committee – Terms of Reference

This committee consists of a Chairman, who is a member of the Executive Council and one or more members.

This committee will annually review applications that qualify for available bursaries and scholarships and render a decision on who will receive them.

The committee will not accept applications which are incomplete.

Except for the Prince of Wales Scholarship, priority in awards will be given to Veterans and Veteran dependents meeting the criteria and in financial need.

(a) First time applicants will be considered before repeat applicants.

(b) Applicants must be accepted to an institution of higher learning within Nova Scotia unless the program the student wishes to take is not available in Nova Scotia.

(c) An applicant who has not received a scholarship or bursary from another source will be considered above those that have.

The Prince of Wales Scholarship will be granted to an applicant with a disability. The committee may ask that the disability be verified by a medical professional. The scholarship may be given to one applicant or divided among several applicants.

Bursary/scholarship disbursements are provided by cheque made out jointly to the post-secondary institution and the student and mailed directly to the Admissions Office of the post-secondary institution. Should the cheque not be cashed within 3 months of issue, the cheque will be cancelled, and the Committee will award the funding to another applicant.

List of Scholarship/Bursaries Available

4. Example Citation

Since being presented life membership/previous major award in 1995, Joe Doe served as treasurer of Branch ___ from 1995 - 2000. During his term of office, finances were always a problem at the branch. The branch had very little in ways of big bank accounts as there were less than a hundred members, most of them veterans. Joe struggled every day to keep a roof over their heads at the same time was very cautious with what money they did have. It was extremely difficult to raise funds in such a small area, but Joe went about having card parties, teas, craft sales, anything that would bring in enough funds to keep them going. The veterans of the branch were gathered from a wide rural area and for some it was difficult to even attend meetings. Because of the declining health of the veteran, when one got sick or housebound, Joe would immediately step in and take over that particular committee and see it through.

March 2001 – when the membership chairman was sick, Joe did that job, collecting dues and filling out forms and keeping the membership chairman abreast of what was happening.

2002 – The Poppy Chairman was also struck down by cancer, so in April 2002, Joe again stepped in and went to the businesses selling the wreaths, making up the programs and organizing a banquet for the veterans. He then made sure that the poppy trays were ready and saw to the countless little things that go along with the poppy program.

In 2003 Joe took over as Secretary of the Branch. He kept the service officer advised of all inform veterans and went to call on each and every one of them. He visited those who were in hospital having to drive several miles. This was done at his own expense. He would also bring them comforts that he purchased from his own money. He kept them informed as to what has been happening at the branch and called DVA as need be. He always checked with the veteran to make sure that they had been looked after. He was in close contact with the President, and in August of 2004, when he had to be hospitalized, he called him every day from his own phone (long distance) to cheer him up and keep him informed. This veteran had to have his leg amputated and Joe was the one who drove fifty miles to the nursing home to take him back to his branch for functions.

2005 – 2006 – Joe is still the secretary of the branch as well as Social Affairs Officer. He organizes the Remembrance banquet each year and single handily organizes the Poppy Campaign from ordering the poppies to the Cenotaph service on November 11th. He goes above and beyond his own duties to make sure the branch is looked after.....he writes articles for PR, takes pictures, makes a light lunch for the members for after the meeting. He sends cards of get well, sympathy, etc., to the community signed by the Branch. This is all done from his own pocket. He is a take charge person and when the need is there, so is Joe, working long into the night to get the job done.

In conclusion, The Royal Canadian Legion is most fortunate to have an unselfish dedicated legionnaire as Comrade Joe Doe and it is an honour and privilege to nominate Comrade Joe Doe for the Palm Leaf to the MSM.

5. Command Ritual, Awards and Protocol Committee Responsibilities

To review and put forth nominations annually for the various awards in The Royal Canadian Legion and Provincial and Federal Government Awards to members and staff of Command.

Examples: Life Membership

MSM/MSA

Palm Leaf

Minister of Veterans Affairs Accommodation

Order of Nova Scotia

Order of Canada

The Committee must review the Holding Branch membership for any award which they qualify for twice a year.

Branches celebrating their 25th, 50th, 75th and 100th anniversary years will be acknowledged by receiving a certificate from Provincial Command signed by the NS/NU Command President.

MAJOR AWARD APPLICATION CHECKLIST

In an effort to assist in ensuring that applications are thorough and complete, the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Committee is providing a checklist to use when completing or reviewing a major Legion award application. This list is by no means a substitute for reading the information in Chapter Two of the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual, but rather a tool to ensure that all of the criteria outlined in the manual are present in the application. We ask that you utilize this Check List prior to submitting the application, hopefully this will assist in reducing major award applications being returned.

The Ritual and Awards Committee (DC) regularly reviews applications for Meritorious Service Medal (MSM), Meritorious Service Award (MSA) and the Palm Leaf to these awards. As these are the highest awards that the Legion bestows on its deserving members, the Committee has an obligation to maintain high standards for these awards. The Committee's ability to adjudicate these awards fairly depends entirely on the information provided in the applications submitted on behalf of the nominees.
